Occupational and Physical Therapy Management of Spinal Cord Injury

References

General

Bowel/Bladder Management
- Selected information on Americans with Disabilities Act was compiled with modifications and permission from presentation on “Spinal Cord Injuries” (Singapore) by Erica Druin, PT and Sue Kida, PT: Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation

Gait for the Motor Incomplete Client
- Eberly V, Kubota K, Weiss W. To Brace or Not to Brace: Making Evidence-Based Decisions with Our Clients with Neurological Impairments. As presented at APTA Combined Sections Meeting February 2006.
Hand and Splinting

- Grew MI. Tendon transfers: A second chance for increased independence. Part of Fellowship Final Project at Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation / University of Medicine & Dentistry of NJ; 1999.
- Splinting /Taping Protocol developed by Sean McCarthy, MS, OTR, ATP, Cinical Specialist, Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation. Information compiled with permission from lecture “Tetraplegic Hand Function: The Formulation of an Effective Tenodesis Grasp” by Sean McCarthy.
- Tendon Transfer and Neuro Control Information compiled with modifications and permission from information provided “The Tetraplegic Hand” by Michael Hausman, M.D., Chief of Surgery, Mt. Sinai Medical Center, New York City.
- Medtronic. Spasticity Management: Focus on Rehabilitation. Minneapolis, Minnesota 2003

Medical Complications after SCI

- European Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel. Available at URL: http://epuap.org; US National Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel. Available at URL: http://npuap.org
- National Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel, Available at URL: http://npuap.org; European Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel, Available at URL: http://epuap.org
- Sprague S, Hopkins P. Use of inspiratory strength training to wean 6 patients who were ventilator dependent. Physical Therapy. 2003; 83: 171-181.

Seating and Positioning

Shoulder Dysfunction

Wellness, recreation and sports